SEA CHANGE PART 2

A wild and lovely triptych meditation on the power of the Female Spirit. The decision to break and abandon unhealthy cycles. The majesty and wonder of the vast ocean.

Giant puppets, Live music, Uncanny devices, Celebratory songs, and an all-female cast of puppeteers, dancers, singers, and actors present the strange and lyrical tale of a Chef steering a massive ship. Having fallen victim to a rare virus- a unique onion poisoning, she feverishly witnesses (or does she?) three new myths- The Mermaids Tail, The Whale Song, and The Moons Lullaby.
