Go Home Tiny Monster is a recipient of a 2018 Jim Henson Foundation Family Grant and is generously supported by Puppet Showplace Theater's Incubator program. It was developed in part at the National Puppetry Conference at The Eugene O'Neill Theater Center and at the Charlestown Working Theater. This piece was created in part at The Yard, an artist residency and performance center dedicated to contemporary dance, theater, and related arts, as part of the 2017 Off-Shore Creation Residency.

ABOUT

The Gottabees are passionate about community, family joy and empowerment and have been guiding families through stage performances, interactive experiences, and audio adventures since 2013. Their work has been performed in 18 states, 5 countries, for over 41,000 people and was awarded an UNIMA-USA Citation of Excellence. Their projects have been funded by the Jim Henson Foundation, Puppeteers of America, USArtists International, Boston Cultural Council, New England Foundation for the Arts, and the Boston Foundation.
